

Please do NOT weaken the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law by allowing members of the Consumer Bankers Association to invade my privacy. I have signed up for the do not call list. Our family now receives a minimum of 10 credit card applications per week by mail which I must pay for proper disposal. I personally do not wish to be contacted by any members of the Consumer Bankers Association. Privacy must be determined by the telephone subscriber and NOT a telemarketer. Prior to the Indiana no call list, I received multiple calls per week from the same financial institution. They were asked to stop calling and they refused. Enough is enough! Perhaps I need to take them to Court!!!
